NEW RECORDS AT HARLEM.

Despite the fact that the news was spread around town at noon about an injunction being issued against betting at the Harlem racetrack an unusually large Monday crowd was present and enjoyed a good card of seven races. The betting was light.

Advance Guard ran a remarkably improved race over his last start and took Bangle easily into camp. He showed in the stretch with his old time brilliancy and Woods gave him a skillful ride. Bangle ran to the mark but was no match for him.

Fancy Wood, with her light impost, established a new track record of 1:46 1/2 for one mile and 100 yards, beating the game Kingston filly, The Lady, in a desperate drive of a quarter of a mile by a neck. It was simply a question of weight concession and the Hildreth filly was not quite equal to the task.

Jingle Bell took the steeplechase, but had Isen not fallen at the ninth jump, the latter might have given him a stiff argument at the end as he hesitated at the last hazard and took it slowly, but was far enough in front of Coronatus to recover and come on again.

Nellie Waddell, a fast filly from Jake Marklein's stable, won the first race in a canter and equaled the track mark of 54 seconds for four and one-half furlongs. She has a wonderful turn of speed. Elsie L., a filly of good class, won the fifth race in easy fashion. It was her second win of the meeting. The fields in the first and last races were unwieldy and made speculation rather risky.

Owners and trainers having entries in the Austin Selling Stakes, to be run Thursday, must declare what horses they intend to run, through the entry box at the regular time for making entries Wednesday, giving selling price. No added starters will be permitted afterwards.

Jockey Coburn was fined $50 for cutting across in front of the field on Nellie Waddell just after the flag fell.

Judge Holdom having granted a temporary injunction against the Harlem officials and a number of specified bookmakers to prevent bookmaking on the grounds, deputy sheriffs arrived during the course of the afternoon and served the writ on the officials and a number of the bookmakers. The affair was quietly conducted and few of the spectators knew of such important action having been taken. What will be done in the premises today remains to be seen.

GALLOPS AT WASHINGTON PARK.

At Washington Park yesterday Sadie S. was given a workout over the Derby distance that will enforce respect for her chance in the big race of next Saturday. She carried 127 pounds on her back and went the mile in 1:45 1/2, mile and one-eighth in 1:59, mile and a quarter in 2:14 1/2, mile and three-eighths in 2:30 and the mile and a half in 2:41. She was fighting for her head all the way, although the boy held her under a stout pull from wire to wire.

His Eminence went the Derby distance in 2:38 1/2 without being hurried. It was reported that the weight carried did not exceed 108 pounds. His fractional times were as follows: 13 1/2 seconds, 27, 40 1/2, 53, 1:07, 1:20, 1:33 1/2, 1:45 1/2, 1:58, 2:11 1/2, 2:25 1/2, 2:38 1/2. He covered the last eighth in 13 seconds flat and was swinging with his mouth wide open.

Terminus was given slow work yesterday, but will be sent the route at good speed this morning.

Canmore is coughing and was only given gentle exercise yesterday. Owner W. B. Jennings says the colt is not right and will not start.

Beau Gallant, Bonnibert, Blues and The Parader were billed to arrive last night.

Winner—B. f. by Julien—May Wagner.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Nellie Waddell was a whirlwind for speed and virtually ran away from her field. The Rival had also a sharp turn of speed, but was stopping badly in the last fifty yards. Best Man, badly out-run the first quarter, closed strikingly. Lord Quex, all tangled up in the start, showed to advantage when once he got clear sailing. Hat Mitchell stopped almost to a walk in the last sixteenth. Harry Wilson, early pocketed, got out of the jam too late to be of any avail and was given an easy ride.
Overweights—Horse, 1 pound.
Nellie Waddell, show, 2 to 1. The Rival, show, 7 to 10. Best Man, show, 7 to 5. Harry Wilson, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Mars—Polmaise.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Moses, always well up, came away handily in the last sixteenth and stalled off Whitfield's bid with a little urging. The latter was well ridden and made his run at the right time. He looked dangerous for a moment at the last sixteenth, but could not get up. Plead, considering the weight, ran a good race. Gawaine is improving and will do to watch. Uncle Tom, under a boy that could hold his head up, showed a great deal of improvement. Flaneur was all out by the time the last eighth had been reached. Guy H. is of no account.
Scratched—25985 Barbara B., 97; 25990 John Drake, 109.
Corrected weights—Gawaine, 109.
Moses, show, 11 to 20. Whitfield, show, 3 to 10. Plead, show, 3 to 2.

Time, 3:39 1/2.
Winner—B. g. by Jils Johnson—Queen Beluga.
Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Jingle Bell, after jumping cleanly, hesitated at the last jump and took it slowly losing a great deal of ground. He recovered however and coming on won easily. Coronatus fenced nicely, but lost ground in the stretch by running to the outside rail. Viking made up much ground, but was too far out of it up to the last jump to have any chance of winning. Isen was full of run when she went down, at the time barring accident she looked to have the race well in hand. Crystine fell at the second jump throwing her jockey heavily.
Overweights—Crystine, 1 pound.
Jingle Bell, show, out. Coronatus, show, 3 to 5. Viking, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—Ch. c. by Great Tom—Nellie Van.
Went to post at 4:00. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Advance Guard was a different horse than when Lake Mills beat him last Friday, and had all his old time speed. Woods made his run entering the stretch, and got to Bangle at the last sixteenth. After that it was easy sailing. Bangle hung when challenged but ran a high class race and then gave it up.
Overweights—Advance Guard, 1 pound; Boney Boy, 3 1/2.
No show betting on first three.

Winner—B. f. by St. Leonards—Elsie.
Went to post at 4:30. At post 2 minutes. Start excellent. Won hands down; second easily. Elsie L. was very much the best and the result was never in doubt. Dodie S. was easily the best of the others. Almanzo tired perceptibly the last eighth. Drummond hugged the inner rail at the stretch entry and saved much ground, but went all to pieces when the rub came. Quality had early speed, but could not carry it far. Autumn Leaves was always outrun.
Scratched—25916 Hoodwink, 105.
Overweights—Dodie S., 2 pounds; Drummond, 3.
Elsie L., show, out. Dodie S., show, 3 to 1. Almanzo, show, 8 to 5.

Winner—Br. f. by Prince of Monaco—Sara.
Went to post at 4:55. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won in a long desperate drive; second handily. The Lady and Fancy Wood hooked up at the half and a blanket might have covered them the rest of the journey. It was simply a question of weights. The Lady looked for a moment a winner in the last twenty-five yards but Fancy Wood held on and showed great gameness. Tillie W. had sped for a half and then fell entirely out of it.
Overweights—Fancy Wood, 4 pounds.
No show betting on first three.

Winner—B. m. by Exile—Wildflower.
Went to post at 5:25. At post 15 minutes. Start fair. Won in a canter; second the same. Winter, off well, shook off Lady Idris after the first quarter and was easily the best thereafter. El Caney had clear sailing all the way and was easily the best of the others. Dagmar closed fast after he got clear at the head of the stretch, as did also Barbara M. Locochee ran a fair race after trailing back of the field for a half. Zacatoso stopped badly in the last eighth; so did Red Apple. Lady Idris ran a fine race for six furlongs and then faded away to nothing. Refugee was excused, before racing started for lameness.
Scratched—25053 The Bondman, 107; 25913 Hormencia, 104; 25988 Refugee, 107.

O'Neil gave Fridolin a smoother ride than usual and kept him going to the end. Ed L. was used too much. After showing a lot of speed he stopped in the last sixteenth. Samuel had a lot of speed but hung at the end on account of his bad legs. Staff and Wiedemann had easy races. Scratched—(25660) Prince of Delight, 105.

He was well ridden the short way. Terra Incognita ran a good race on the outside and finished very strong. He would have won in another stride or two. Orris had a lot of early speed.
